FOOD STAMP PLAN MEETS APPROVAL HERE

Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

Those wishing to vote for Roosevelt next Tuesday, should vote for the following electors: Dees Stribbling, James L. Davis, W. L. Sharp, Kermit L. Cofer, J. M. Talbot, J. E. Eudy, R. C. Russell, Kelly Hammonds and H. V. Wall, nine names in all. This is the first bunch on the list.

For the benefit of those not familiar with voting in the Presidential race, a voter does not vote directly for Roosevelt or Willkie, but for certain "electors". The Democratic "electors" are listed above.

If you are a regular hide-bound Republican, you should vote for the bunch headed by Fred W. Hale.

If you are a Willkie Democrat, you should vote for the bunch headed by George L. Shelton.

If you wish to vote the Socialist ticket, you may vote for L. Z. Cook and Wade McDonald.

I hate to fuss at our telephone girls, but it looks like they have slowed up here lately, or it may be that I am getting older and more testy.

Whoever you vote for - that being your own priceless privilege - VOTE for somebody Tuesday.

And, you might as well stick in one for Old Bill, and Ford.

Ann Kent, whose picture appears elsewhere in this issue, certainly does not take after her papa in looks, fortunately.

I am interested in buying a used typewriter, portable preferred, cheap for cash money.

For two-bits, we will send the GCW anywhere until the first of January, 1941. This is one of those trial baloons.

Bring $40,000 in cash here every month, instead of $40,000 worth of "commodities". That's what the Food Stamp Plan will mean to Grenada County.

Bring some of your printing orders to the same place you bring your requests for free publicity.

Will Hoffa is paying $1.50 per week to publish the slogan "Grenada, A Town With a Future". Cash money.

Dink Thomason told Keene Huffington that he saw a squirrel jump 300 feet, which is pretty good, but nothing extra for Dink.

Our guest editorial writer's confidence in ultimate victory for Britain is still unshaken.

Congratulations to five of our "sweet ones" who just recently took the state examinations and are now full-fledged Registered Nurses: Miss Sally May McCulop, Miss Agnes Hale and Miss Christine Brown, now all taking post-graduate work at Sanitorium; Miss Mary Etta Morris, now in Indianola Hospital; and Miss Marie Marter Trussell, in Grenada Hospital.

Ask Newt Rayburn about that campaign button and that campaign literature that he recently received.

Brother J. A. Goodman of Grenada industries is in Grenada.

The town of Mathison will be made happy another year as the citizens there can continue to borrow and read the GCW which goes to Miss Myrtle Jones another year.

Tommie Rose has a new clerk, a red-headed one.

Alderman L. T. Horn is happier now since he can cut and grade cotton samples.

We keep hearing that the city voters may have to pass upon a two mills increase in the General Fund levy. That will be something to be thankful for on Turkey Day.

Two dollars were rung up on the cash register (tho we have no cash register other than pants pockets) for Kate Lickfold Woodward who renewed recently.

Sister Dovie Butler from Chicago made a flying visit to Grenada this week.

George Wood, editor of the Winona Times, was in Grenada Tuesday, and reported that 70 percent of the people of Montgomery county were on relief, and that if they did not get the Food Stamp Plan in operation, they were blowed-up pekerwoods. Grenada county's percentage is mighty high, but we are not telling HOW high.

Take your capsules, boys, just like Dr. Roosevelt prescribed them.

Aria Steel Pepper, Colored, Grenada's No. One Man

When President Roosevelt reached his hand into the fish bowl in Washington Tuesday and drew forth a capsule, it was disclosed that the number in that first capsule was 158, and that the number 158 in Grenada County belonged to Aria Steel Peppers, a colored man living at 72 Adams St., Grenada.

Another stirring of the capsules and another blind selection, brought forth a capsule containing Number 192, which is the number of another Grenada County colored man: Wardel Brown, Star Route 1.

Before ten of the capsules had been drawn, the number 105 showed up, and this number belonged to T. J. Marters, Jr., a white young man of Route 2, Sweatman, but living in the extreme eastern part of this county.

Men bearing the number 158, and there are thousands of men throught the nation - one in each draft district, will be the first called for service, provided, of course, that these individuals meet the requirements and are classified as A-1.

In the order that the numbers were drawn from the fish bowl in Washington, the men bearing these numbers will be called.

Official instructions have not arrived in Grenada, but the presumption is that about fifty of the 2300 odd registered men in the county each day will receive blanks to be filled out. The information contained in these papers will be used to classify the men. When a registrant receives a blank, he MUST fill it out and return it to the Draft Board within five days.

The Draft Board in Grenada is composed of John T. Keeton, Chairman, O. L. Kimbrough and S. A. Wier. The attorney is Marshall Perry. The examining physician is Dr. J. S. Sharp. The clerk is S. H. Horton. The assistant clerk is Miss Bowen. Draft Headquarters is over Fatherree's Drug Store.

Channel Clearing Begun On Yalobusha

A WPA project which contemplates the clearing of the channel and the de-brushing of the banks of the Yalobusha River from Holcomb bridge upstream about 70 miles, started last Friday when 350 men, under the supervision of Supt. Luther Thomas and Foreman Jack Lott and Roland Rayburn, began work near Holcomb.

Work of similar character had been completed upstream from Greenwood to the Holcomb bridge last year, and the present projects intends to pursue this work not only up the Yalobusha to Calhoun City and beyond, but also 2 or 30 miles up Skuna River.

Charles Cleveland is Time Keeper on this job. All WPA employees not assigned to other jobs in the county are engaged in this work.

BEAUTY SPOTS OF GRENADA

There are plenty of lovely flower gardens in Grenada but a few are so easily seen from the car window that they have impressed us.

Mr. Lickfold's dahlias, as one goes down Green Street, Mrs. C. K. Bailey's stately pink dahlias, as seen from South Street, Mrs. W. E. Jackson's exquisite azalia mums and the bed of red cannas at Mrs. Fair's home. Many more flowers are blossoming in Grenada gardens.

Take time off Tuesday and vote. How you vote is YOUR business, but vote. Personally, I am going to put in one for what Hurd Horton calls "dear old Bill".

GET SOME OF IT

(An editorialette)

Stop sniffing about bad business.

Parity checks are coming in every week.

Seed money, while in relatively small volumne, is circulated.

The hosiery mill is still paying out gobs of money every week.

There is plenty of money in Grenada

Advertise what you have for sale, and try to get some of this money instead of sniffing about "bad business".

Legionnaires Mobilize; Barbecue Is Given

The white ex-service men of the county met with the members of the American Legion Post at the Fair Grounds Sunday and as a result of this meeting, the mobilization and organization of the Grenada County Guard unit were perfected, while as an aftermath of this more serious business, a bountiful spread of barbecued meats and "trimmins" was enjoyed.

The county was divided into three platoons, Jim Keeton, Orman Kimbrough and William Wright are the platoon commanders, while Lem Boone commands the Headquarters detachment. Keeton's platoon contains men from West and South of Grenada; Wright's platoon contains men from East and North of Grenada; Kimbrough's platoon contains men from Grenada itself. The members of the Headquarters outfit are also from Grenada. William H. Saunders is the commander of the entire home guard unit.

It was conservatively estimated that 125 men took part in this mobilization, and this meeting constituted one of the largest in the history of this post.

COUNTY COUNCIL MEETS

The County Council met at the Agricultural Building with 3 clubs 100 percent in attendance. Mrs. Neely offered a prize for club having 100 percent attendance at all council meeting during year.

Mrs. Sam Gillon spoke on problems on farm living and education.

Mrs. Velma Neely spoke on projects of making community more effective for school children.

Mrs. Anna Felder, Home Demonstration Agent, of Marks, gave a talk on home activities of our girls.

Each club is going to visit other clubs before next council meeting.

Mrs. Sam Gillon recreational leader, led us in a song and a game with Mrs. Koonce, of Graysport club winning prize.

Mrs. Neely and Miss Mary Clark served delightful refreshments of doughnuts and tea.

Grenada Man Defends F.D.R.

Editor Grenada County Weekly:-

A warning to the upchested, brilliant (i) so-called "Willkie Democrats" who contemplate leaving the Democratic reservation and breaking into the Willkie pasture. Think once,, twice, think even three times before you leave the party of your ancestors. Don't use the alibi of a "third term" as an excuse. Thomas Jefferson, after serving two terms himself as president, controlled both Monroe and Madisons terms each in close collaboration with them in their governmental actions and decisions for sixteen years more, making him twenty-four years, to all intents and purposes, our president. Andrew Jackson was elected three times by the popular vote of the people. His first election was thrown into the Congress for their decision, and Henry Clay "sent Jackson down the river," for the office of secretary of state, promised by the Adams administration, betrayal of Jackson by Clay defeated Clay in ever realizing his life's ambition to become president of the United States. Van Buren's nomination and election was also dominated by Andrew Jackson.

Willkie, in his desperation, is promising everything to the people, contradicting himself continuously. This is the man who as president of the Commonwealth and Southern Utility Company leased from the government at the Wilson Dam power at 1.56 mills per kilowatt hour and because he had the power took the right to sell the power to the little farmer in his cabin on the mountain side and the banker in his counting house the same power at 10 cents per kilowatt hour, only making for his company something over 6000 per cent. These are facts that cannot be controverted. Whatwould he do to our people if he were our president with such ideals of cold-blooded, selfish gain in his heart.

Willkie is a wild, radical Democratic bull in the conservative Republican china shop, smashing everything in the way of Republican party ideals and making votes for Roosevelt every day. What a contrast is Roosevelt? A man who has been seasoned in a crucible of refined fire until all the dross has been taken out of him; a man who really loves the people, and and who has dedicated his life to their services unselfishly; a man who has vision; a man who has strength, who has unparalleled courage to execute. This man Roosevelt, whom the people of America are going to elect as their president on November 5th, in this grave crisis, as the general of our army, and commands of our navy is the same Roosevelt, father, and mothers of America who as assistant secretary of our navy in the first World War, accomplished the almost impossible feat, that of sending our boys over without the loss of life, by introducing his wonderful convoy system, much to the confusion of the German submarines. If you wish to give comfort and aid to our enemies, Hitler and Mussolini, the men who say that they are going to suppass our Western Democracies and take their gold, which is tantamount to a declaration of war, which they made months ago, vote for Willkie. Those who wish to keep the general of our army and commander of our navy without risking the great danger of a change at this time of vital emergency, vote for Roosevelt.

The parade will be led by the City Official Car.

The City Fire Truck will follow.

Next, the "Civil War Vets" car.

Then the "Spanish War Vets" car.

Garner Brothers' ambulance with Red Cross nurse, Mrs. Ezra Dudley.

Cars, Fred Griffin.

Members of the American Legion and ex-service men will follow.

Grenada High School Band will be in next place.

Cars, Grenada Auto Company.

The National Guardsmen will follow.

Cars, Oliver Lilly Motor Company

Grenada Boy Scouts.

Cars, Art Quantrell Chevrolet Co.

Parade to start promptly at 11 o'clock.

Response For Clothing For British Is Great

The response to an appeal for warm clothing to send to British Relief Society, made through Chairman of various local organizations, was indeed most gratifying, according to Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, who so earnestly offered to work in cooperation with the Nineteenth Century Club of Memphis. Mr. J. H. Oliver, president of Grenada Grocery Company, delivered in one of his trucks the consignment to Memphis.

Chairmen, are thanked for their splendid contributions: Mrs. Jack Sanderson, chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Myrtle Thomas, Chairman for the Easter Star; Mrs. E. R. Burkley, Social Service chairman of the Episcopal Auxiliary; Mrs. Sam Simmons, chairman of the Baptist W. M. U.; Mrs. Jean Marders, Presbyterian Auxiliary; Mrs. R. W. Sharp and Miss Margaret Cuff, for the Methodist Womens Society of Christian Service Circles 1 and 4; Misses Lucille and Georgia Cook of the Novelty Shop, a large box of woolen clothing for children; Mr. J. H. Oliver for transporting the clothing to the City of Memphis.

Mrs. Richardson of the 19th Century Club of Memphis wrote Mrs. Wilkins, thanking her for the valuable contributions made by Grenada citizens.

SEWING ROOM PROJECT FACES ABANDONMENT

According to Roland Wall, WPA Administrator, the Grenada County sewing room project, at present giving employment to 13 women, will have to be abandoned about December 1st, unless in the meantime its co-sponsors Grenada County and the City of Grenada, agree to resume their sponsorship.

Mrs. Lucy Duncan is foreman of the Grenada unit. The local monthly contributions of county and city aggregates about $40.00.

URGENT NEED FOR FUNDS

State Democratic Headquarters reports that it is in very urgent need of funds to continue the campaign, according to a telegram from John Sharp Holmes to Mr. S. H. Horton.

It takes money to win a campaign, as it does to win a war. Contributions, great or small, should be turned over immediately to Mr. Horton for transmission to state headquarters.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING

All Democrats of Grenada County are urged to meet at the Mayor's office Friday evening at 7 o'clock to discuss ways and means of getting out literature and ways and means of "getting out the vote" on Tuesday next.

Since I cannot write about certain meetings and have been forbidden to mention one of Beat Four's prominent citizens, I am at a serious disadvantage.

Food Stamp Plan Explained By Mr. J. G. Gilfoy

At the invitation of Grenada Retail Merchants Association, Mr. J. G. Gilfoy, Director for Community Distribution of the Mississippi Division, appeared before a representative group of merchants, bankers and other businessmen of this community at the Community House in Grenada last Friday evening and explained to this group the steps necessary to be taken before the present system of commodity distribution in this county can be replaced by so-called Stamp Plan of distribution.

Mr. Gilfoy made it clear that four groups, viz, the bankers of the county, the retail merchants of the county, the wholesale grocers of the county and the county board of supervisors, must first petition Washington for the change, and each undertaking to do his or their part before this county can ever become eligible, and that this county must become part of a unit comprising other counties, with an aggregate population of 75,000 persons. With this county made "eligible" and this county associated or grouped with other counties to make up an aggregate population of 75,000 persons, the Secretary of Agriculture will then at his discretion, declare this multi-county unit eligible as a Stamp Plan area.

The bankers, the retail merchants and the wholesale merchants are now being asked to sign their several petitions, and, at the next meeting of the county board, this body will be asked to commit itself to the plan. Essentially, the merchants, both retail and wholesale, must indicate that they want this plan, and that they think the plan is a better plan of distribution than the present plan; the banks must agree to handle the stamps (when grouped on a yard controlling $10,000 worth), without collection charges, while the county board must provide a revolving fund of about $6,000.00 and also obligate itself to pay the running expenses estimated at about $800.00 per month, of the accounting organization necessary in the operation of the plan in this county. It was suggested at the meeting that the city council might be invited to collaborate with the county board in providing the revolving fund and in providing the necessary maintenance expense.

Mr. Gilfoy stated that in the unit composed of Forest and Jones counties, the installation of the plan raised the general business 11 percent, and this was BEFORE the great army boom caused by the influx of soldiers in the Hattiesburg area. He stated that no community has ever asked to revert to the old plan, and that where once tried, the stamps plan had worked successfully.

Mr. Gilfoy estimated that the inauguration of the plan in this county would mean the spending here of $40,000.00 additional dollars per month; that, for every dollar spent by the county for maintenance of the office, one hundred dollars of "new" money would come to the county.

Under the workings of the plan, it started here, persons on so-called work-relief would be permitted to buy a minimum one dollar's worth of orange stamps per week for each member of his or her family, and would be GIVEN fifty cents worth of blue stamps per week for each member of his or her family. The maximum would be $1.50 and 75 cents respectively. Those on so-called direct-relief would be GIVEN fifty cents worth of blue stamps per week for each member of his or her family.

Orange stamps may be used in the purchase of ANY food; blue stamps may be used only for the purchase of food designated as Surplus. At the present time, such things as flour, meat, rice, to mention a few, may be purchased with the blue stamps. In short, with blue stamps, one may BUY the self same articles that he now gets by standing in line, in a jostling crowd and BE GIVEN.

Those present were practically unanimous in lauding the plan.

Further comment on this plan may be found on the editorial page.

Mr. J. H. Neely, the president, presided.

Supervisor Burns Strider of Beat Four attended the barbecue and mobilization last Sunday, not as a supervisor, but as an ex-serviceman.

HONORS DAUGHTER WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. F. E. DeLoach assisted by her sister, Mrs. Paul McGaugh, entertained with a birthday party Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 22, honoring her small daughter, Martha Nell on her fifth birthday. After the children were all arrived and presided over by Mary Ann many nice gifts, they received some interesting game of some number until all were tired. Then delicious fall menu suited to the occasion was served.

Suffering with high blood pressure, governor Paul B. Johnson is now resting and undergoing treatment at Hot Springs, Ark., from which place his many friends in the state hope he will soon return fully recovered.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

The News has consistently advocated the establishment here of the Food Stamp Plan, and has used its time and the thought and investigating capacity of its editor to the fullest in promoting the deal. It looks like, in all fairness, that those who will benefit from the establishment of that plan would favor us with some of their business. A fellow gets tired after a while of pulling the other fellow's chestnuts from the fire.

The W. W. Democratic will be sent the rest of 1940 for 25 bits, just to let those not receiving it get the habit.

Willie Lyron got scared and sold a yearling or something, and renewed.

Judy Lilled at Hollandale or Oxberry Saturday night.

If Papa Dollos hits oil at Oxberry, we will call him Sweet Papa, for we then can get enough money together to buy some winter drawers, sorely needed as the piercing blasts from the North gather with increasing fury and intensity.

Wonder what became of Hugh?

The Court House Debating Society will soon have to have sessions in Charlie Worsham's office, as it's too stish outside.

Sister Jim Weed pitched in an appreciated six bits.

When we had to quit mentioning details of the meetings of the DIShonest Aldermen's Club, we lost as big a source of news as we did when the Loop Mosquito Lake chillen got their school. They were fixing to turn some of the boys out of the church.

A large crowd of us Presbyterians attended Rev. J. R. Cunningham's last service Sunday night.

LOST: Dick Thomason.

We hate to mention names, but a good many around Holcomb are delinquent on the books, and we hate to cut them off.

Each one who registered in the Draft, will receive a questionnaire to fill out soon. This blank must be filled in and returned within five days. Don't monkey with Uncle Sam.

If everyone who says he is going to vote for Willkie in this county really goes vote for Willkie Willkie will receive about 18 or 19 votes in Grenada County.

We read somewhere about R. E. Lee who had something to do with one of our wars, but, while we revere his memory and honor his name, this R. E. Lee has gone to that "bourne from which no traveler ever returned" and, therefore, we consider R. E. Ley a greater asset than the first named, as the latter paid in $1.50 cash money to receive the GCW a full year.

We will bet a quarter that Wick Ransom misses Tony Poterio.

Dr. Coats writes out lots of those Rx for the ailing ones in Beat Four, but we wrote him a Rx last week, "The GCW every Friday morning for 52 weeks, then repeat' and charged him $1.50 which he proceeded to have filled.

Mark our prediction: business will get progressively better here from now on, as the waves of prosperity which other sections are about to experience reach us. God knows what the end of this bought prosperity will be!

Everything But Wardrobe Trunk

With their larger, roomier bodies, the 1941 Ford DeLuxe and Super DeLuxe cars have exceptionally large luggage capacity beneath the broad rear decks. It will hold several large bags and smaller pieces of luggage. The compartment is lined, automatically lighted, and has a rubber floor mat for extra protection.

Class rivalries seem forgotten forthe moment by these four class presidents at Mary Hardin-Baylor College. From left to right they are Etoile Dubard, Dubard Miss., junior; Isabelle Pettigrew, Freeport, N. Y., freshman; Frances Henry San Antonio, sophomore; and Louise Blackwell, Corsicana, senior.

The junior class has just staged the annual junior - freshman wedding, while Miss Pettigrew who hails from the far east, is getting her first introduction in Texas college social life as her freshman class makes big plans for the annual reception to begiven on December 7 to which approximately 500 guests will be invited. Miss Henry also is busy directing plans for the annual sophomore picnicin November. Senior activities will begin in earnest on February 1 when the seniors march for the first time in academic cap and gown on the anniversary of the college's ninety-sixth birthday.

Dear Squire Carver: we have change for that twenty now. Have you the twenty yet?

Speaking of squires, Squire Gray from Mt. Nebo was in town Saturday, smiling and grinning as usual. He must have just got some good costs.

Do not fret and worry. If the pig spending spree makes a big wave in the industrial areas, a big series of ripples will reach Grenada soon. You may look out for the best business year in history—just ahead—not like Hoover's, just around the corner.

Please note a few substitutions in the list of officers to hold the General Election.

By not voting Tuesday, you give Willkie one-half a vote.

Partner Warner Horton must ginned, sold a yearling or brought in some scaleybarks for sale, for he paid his dues recently.

Even money on Britain.

Color blindness has about disappeared in Grenada.

If you beleive in the Food Stamps, work for them like we do.

Harry Ray who used to make the galloping dominoes sit up and bark for supper, when he was in the army, was a recent visitor to Grenada. He needs my diet list.

GORE SPRINGS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Tucker and family visited relatives near West Sunday.

Prof. and Mrs. Eugene McGahey, little daughter, Martha Nell and Miss Helen Bright, spent the week-end at [illegible] and friends and relatives.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John James Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. F. Z. Huffstatler, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Williams and three children, Mrs. E. L. Lines and four children, Mrs Annie Tharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard James and two children and Mrs. Rosie Hicks and four children.

Mr. Will Ferguson's many friends will regret to learn that he is in a Jackson hospital now. But hope that during his stay there he may travel speedily on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Bell Trussell was made happy Sunday by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCormack and three daughters, Misses Ruth, Lucille and Martha, of Coffeeville.

Mrs. G. D. McKnight and two [illegible] Wayne and Sharon, of Sarepta, [illegible] Monday and Monday night in the home of Mrs. Howard James and Mrs. Annie Tharpe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Carroll and two handsome little sons spent the week-end with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gillon.

A sad occurance happened at school Monday morning when little [illegible] Hardwick fell unconscious. He was rushed to medical aid and is now in the Grenada Hospital. The last report was that no change had taken place. This was such a sad shock to his teacher and many friends which he had made at school and we pray that God will see fit to spare him and that he will soon be able to return to school.

Miss Ballard and Miss Pryor were home visitors through the week-end. Misses Branscome, Huffman and Hawkins spent the week-end at Delta State Home Coming week.

"Miss" Rosa Thomason, matriarch of Pearidge, has been moved up a year on the mailing list. I think the word is spelled right.

Miss Blanche Winter left Grenada Monday for her home in California after several weeks' visit with the W. A. Winter family and with the family of Mrs. Mollie Towns.

Mr. S. M. [illegible] and the Ole Miss Ark. game in Memphis Saturday. He was accompanied by his mother and wife, who visited with relatives.

Miss Bessie Pharland Sharp is to be secretary at Y. W. C. A. at Monroe, La., not secretary to Y. M. C. A. as published last week. We understand she will do a lot of work among the Girl Reserve group, a work which she had training and special interest for several years.

. . . ON THE POLITICAL FRONT . . .

By Herbert B. Allen

There's a lesson vital and compelling in Mr. Willkie. None of the Republican politicians possessed the personality, ability and experience demanded by the presidency today. Realistic Republicans had already conceded the reelection of Mr. Roosevelt for a third term. So the nomination of Mr. Willkie had the interest of a dark horse candidacy. And had his campaign strategy been in adroit hands and his addresses been prepared by clever political writers, Mr. Willkie would have given the president a strong race.

Mr. Willkie proved a distinctly disappointing candidate. An outstanding operator in Wall Street he is representative of the group that formerly constituted the invisible government of the United States. If a man of his wide experience fails so signally to comprehend our complex problems, then what chance has the average man, schooled in agriculture, business or the practice of law on a modest scale, to deal with them intelligently.

In the past forty years nearly eight thousand members have been elected to the House of Representatives. How many of them came into national prominence? And in those forty years very few important bills became law. Such as were passed were sponsored chiefly by liberal Republicans under Theodore Roosevelt and by liberal Democrats under Woodrow Wilson. Only the presure of great popular discontent made their passage possible at the time. The vicious opposition of all conservative interests to the Federal Reserve Act is well remembered.

Witness the recent sorry spectacle in the House while that cumbersome body wrangled aimlessly with the national defense measures. Here you have democracy at its futile worst. Not only is such impotence exasperating but it is actually a menace to the national safety. In consequence the nation's business inevitably tends to gravitate into smaller and more competent groups—to the President, the Senate and to the Supreme Court.

It now becomes of paramount importance that we have more accurate political labels with which to designate the personal opinions and mental attitudes of the candidates for these powerful offices. With no intention of offending the sensibilities of friends, may I suggest that the names democratic and Republican no longer serve this purpose.

A few years ago two senior partners of J. P. Morgan & Co. were prominent in high politics. Mr. John W. Davis and Mr. Dwight Morrow represented the firm's interest in the Democratic and Republican parties respectively. Mr. Davis, a lawyer of the ultra conservatives stamp of William Howard Taft, was Democratic candidate for the presidency. Mr. Morrow, a classmate of President Coolidge, was appointed ambassador to Mexico and elected to the Senate from New Jersey. His untimely death terminated his grooming for the White House by the Republican ticket.

These gentlemen were both very wealthy, powerful Wall Street personalities; moved in the same social circles and to all interests and purposes their interest, opinions and convictions were virtually identical. Yet for reasons which I shall leave to your own imagination, they were Republican and Democratic "statesmen" aspiring to the presidency. Now what did the words Republican and Democratic mean to Mr. Davis and to Mr. Morrow. Why are Mr. Davis and Mr. Alfred E. Smith now voting the Republican ticket. Why do the Democrats provide the Republicans with Mr. Hoover and Mr. Willkie.

Of course the answer is that to them the words have no meaning whatever. Messrs. Davis, Morrow, Hoover, Smith and Willkie are conservatives and their interests are identical in substance. As such they were acceptable to the wealthy interests who always provide financial backing for both political parties impartially. Now I have no quarrel with conservatives as such. But personally I am a liberal and I never pose as a conservative. Conversely I do not enjoy seeing ultra conservative men posing in the national eye as liberals.

To disentangle our national affairs and manage them in a practical and efficient manner we must unravel these tangled and misused terms. Democrat and Republican. We require an aggressive party in power and we want an active party in opposition that is competent to challenge proposed legislation with constructive criticism that are based upon political principles and not upon mere personalities or sectional interests.

Suppose Willkie were elected. Is this President would be the present Republican leader in the Senate, a man who is solidly supporting the most reactionary power developments in the west. And Mr. Willkie is the arch enemy of such public developments. Could you imagine one of our great business industrial enterprises being guided by men of such irreconcilable viewpoint? May I suggest three reforms that are drastically required in order to clarify our difficulties and make their solutions more simple in practice. FIRST. Abolish the senseless type of party platform of the present day. It is deliberately phrased in such abstract terms and vague generalities that it may mean anything or nothing. It is designed to mean all things to all men. Replace this with intelligently framed party platforms which are definite and specific not designed to please everyone, but to appeal to many.

Second, bury the good old game of fighting the election from behind the smoke screen of such issues as prohibition and the third term. Both parties have studiously avoided dealing honestly with the vital controversial issues of the day as they arose. This evasion of responsibility finally resulted in the crushing accumulation of problems which made necessary the writing of vitally important laws during the hectic, perilous months of 1933. Such laws should have been the carefully considered business of the Congress during the previous twenty years.

Third. Condemn drastically the practice of men in key positions, and important newspapers, of supporting the positions they take in relations to important issues by false or misleading statements which they issue as facts. In our immediate vicinity we have a leading example in the Memphis Commercial Appeal. Naturally it would scarcely be expected of the editors that they announce that in view of the New York owners' personal antipathy to the President of the United States they must support Mr. Willkie. No the announcements reads. "We are unalterably opposed to a third term." Is this a new form of carpet bagging political opinion?

We are soon to be confronted with the serious repercussions of the European war, world disturbance which will follow in its wake, and our present problems in a more intensified form. We need two definite parties with active, able leadership, and with two differing, positive and dynamic approaches to the solutions of our business, national and international. On our part we owe it to the nation and to ourselves to divorce our political affiliations from those of other generations and other times, and to consider today's problems on their merits and without reference either to tradition or sentiment. Honor and reputation are permanent things; politics are swiftly transitory.

Hamilton, Madison and Jackson were close students of the Greeks and Romans, and the French and French philosophers of the 17th and 18th centuries. On that classic foundation they did some dramatic flogging of such sacred traditions as the divine rights of kings and parliaments. Has the American mind become ossified with reference to political science. Are their descendants again entangled in the cobwebs of tradition. Are the complex dilemmas of the machine age to be solved by the political instruments forged in the heat of debate when the spinning wheel was in vogue.

The reelection of President Roosevelt will go far toward directing political thought and action into logical and consistent channels toward clarifying political issues in the public mind—and in defining exactly where candidates stand in relation to those issues. Mr. Willkie will have performed one valuable service—he will have the confusion of men and issues more conspicuous than ever before.

President Roosevelt alone possesses those magnete qualities of leadership essential to leading us out of our national political adolescence. The increasing pressure of serious and ominous events makes it more imperative than ever before that our thoughts be rationalized. Too long have the politicians in Washington sought to fog the mirror of public opinion. Let there be light!

GILES BROTHERS
FREDERIC TICKNOR GILES

5 YEARS OLD

The home of Mrs. V. W. Sorrell was the scene of a happy birthday party Friday of last week for Frederic Ticknor Stokes Giles and Mary Wade Giles, twins of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Stokes Giles, it being their 5th birthday celebration. Children's games were supervised by Mrs. Giles and Mrs. Garner. The play equipment on the lawn, the slides, sand piles and merry-go-round furnished hours of pleasure for their afternoon's activities.

Delicious birthday cake and ice cream was served after an hour of games.

Attending this delightful affair were:

Edwin Earle Brasfield, Charles White, Lucy Sorrell, Doris Whitten, Roger Dedmon, Jo Ann Pressgrove, Mary Ann Sorrell, Betty Nelson, Tommie Douglas, Jacqueline Dedmon, Walter Garner, Dedmon, Nancy Gray, Virginia Bradley, Harold Brasfield, Oliver Craig, Jerry Brasfield, Betty Lou Brasfield, Lickfold, Billy Brasfield, Hill Donna Jean Brasfield, Delmar Brasfield, Walter V. MT. NEBO NEWS

Everything all set here, fine rain this morging to lay dust and put out forest fires, and another presidential election just around the corner. But best of all our editor's back at home wth renewed vigor, keen for the spray loaded with prohibition and possibilities.

A woman in Yalobusha county told us last Sunday that she heard our Chief Justice, M. O. Gray say he was going to crack down on devilment and stop it or know the reason why.

Mrs. Pink Hendrix, of Calhoun, is visiting with and assisting her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Byrrss, as Prof. Byers is not doing as well on account of injury he suffered two years ago.

We boast of two good stores here, where good service is the slogan, John Provine and Prof. Byers on the north side.

Out of 375 students at Holmes Jr. College, only 14 were on the honor roll. Of this number Miss Wilma Carter was one. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hardy Carter. We are very proud of her, but not at all surprised to hear it, for she has always had a habit of being a top notcher since she first started going to school and she is as pretty and loveable as she is smart.

RIVERDALE H. D. MEETING

The regular meeting of Riverdale Club met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Boteler with Mrs. Griven and Miss Edith James assisting hostesses. Mrs. N. R. Paschal and Mrs. Charles Jones guests joined the club. Mrs. Childers was a guest.

After the business meeting a game of Bingo was enjoyed by the members, Mrs Charles Jones winning the prize.

Delightful refreshments of salad sandwiches and Coca-Cola was served by the hostess.

You, the casual, callous and clammy reader, may think I am lying, but I was more happy to see my friend, John James, who has been seriously ill, walk into the door than I was to receive the check for his renewal. Mr. James got down sick to the extent that George Garner was surreptitiously measuring him and St. Peter was devoting some of his precious time to selecting the right colored harp.

Food Stamp Plan

Without either praising or damning the government's plan of providing consumers for surplus commodities, this plan is now a fixed part of the government program. We of this cotton country may snicker and deride the distribution of grapefruit and prunes and dried milk, but we are being benefitted by the same broad plan when the same government artificially provides a market for surplus cotton, and thus raises the price of OUR staple commodity. The fruit producers and the dairymen are faced with the same surplus problem that we cotton folks are faced with.

Therefore, until the federal policy is changed, surplus commodities are going to be GIVEN AWAY to the needy and the not-so-needy, as well as to the not-needy-at-all.

For giving away surplus commodities there are two plans, viz: the plan with which we are familiar and evidence of which we see nearly every day at the old oil mill; and the Food Stamp Plan.

Under the present plan, we have long lines of dishevled, worried, tired people slowly dragging their weary bodies to the point where they are dished, out their "commodities". Most of these people, being poor and down and out to start with have a "hard way" to get to town and a harder way to get home, burdened as they are with sometimes heavy sacks and packages. In this plan also, we have quite a few of the county's trucks and the county's employees used in hauling in loads of stuff from Winona, and used in distributing to individual, crippled clients the individual packages.

Under the Food Stamp Plan, the client will receive weekly his or her allotment of negotiable stamps, and these stamps may be used in ANY grocery store in the COUNTY for the purchase of surplus commodities. As explained to us, one of the two accountants detailed to handle the stamps will make a weekly tour of the county, carrying to the clients their allotments of stamps.

Under the present plan, about $10,000.00 worth of groceries are GIVEN AWAY, in direct competition with the merchants of the county every month.

Under the Stamp Plan, $10,000.00 more than is being spent now will be spent with Grenada County merchants. It is an inflexible principle of the plan that stamps issued in Grenada County MUST be spent in Grenada County.

Who has not rebelled at the sight of their fellow citizens, hungry, dirty, tired, slowly awaiting their turns at the commodity house door? What merchant has not rebelled at the sight of a client using a sack begged from the merchant, carrying away sacks full of FREE stuff which the merchant had for SALE? The Food Stamp Plan is a more dignified method of relief, to say the very least of it.

This is no "city scheme," to benefit the city merchants and harm the country merchants. If it were so, we would not advocate it. On the contrary, this scheme will help EVERY merchant in the county, and it will help EVERY relief client in the county. It will help the country merchant by bringing more business into his store. It will help the country relief client because he will be able to fill his needs by using his stamps at the nearby store just as readily as he could use them in Grenada. Even if the client has to come to Grenada to get his stamps, these stamps will be easier to "tote" home than a tow sack filled with potatoes, or grapefruit. Then, too, the client has some discretion in what he buys and where he buys. As it now is, he gets "what they have to give." He may not want any of the things he gets, or he may get more of some than he wants and less of others than he wants. The client has no discretion in the matter, except to refuse to take what is offered. With the blue stamps, he can buy ALL cabbage, if he wants it that way, or ALL meat, or, in other words, he can spend his stamps just like he would his money, PROVIDED he buys with the stamps things certified as surplus.

Under this plan, the client on work-relief (WPA and PWA, for example), will be GIVEN a bunch of these blue stamps, and the blue stamps that he receives will be spent just like the blue stamps that the direct relief client receives. His stamps will benefit the country merchant and the town merchant.

It is apparent at this time that our board of supervisors holds the key to unlock this golden harvest. To make this county eligible, our board of supervisors must provide a "revolving fund" of $60,000.00, which fund, as the name indicates, is self-perpetuating. Only the interest on this money will be expended. The supervisors also must provide the two auditors, or accountants, necessary to service these stamps, they must provide office space, office equipment, telephone, etc. It is estimated that this will cost the county about $400.00 per month Upon thirty days notice the county may cash in and abandon the plan at any time.

On its face, the assumption of a $4,800.00 yearly obligation by the county is quite an item, and an item not to be assumed until it is proven to be greatly beneficial to the county taxpayers. The City of Grenada has never regretted that it paid out $60,000.00 to get Grenada Industries which pays out maybe $20,000.00 a month. As a means of turning aloose "new" money, the Stamp Plan appears to be worth at least TWO Grenada Industries, so far as finances go.

No one can justly accuse us of being promiscuous in urging upon the county supervisors this, that and the other expenditures, but we do most sincerely urge the supervisors to delve fully into this Food Stamp Plan and, if they see that it is a good thing for the county, to commit themselves to the government to adopt the plan, when or if, Grenada County is "designated."

We urge that the reader read the news item on this subject on the front page hereof.

The GCW has worked ceaselessly for the Food Stamp Plan. We see no way where we can benefit directly, but will take our chance on benefitting indirectly. In a spirit of fairness, it seems to us, those who DO benefit directly should patronize the GCW more.

Me and politics have gone out of business.

The Royal Navy

(By Herbert B. Allen, Guest Editorial Writer)

In my first editorial I predicted that Nazi bombs might strike some great historic shrine of the English people, with consequences to the German nation that be fast and furious. That has now happened and you have read that women and children are being evacuated from German cities to the comparative safety of the country. This is positive proof that the ruthless bombing of German by the R. A. F. has now commenced.

In my editorial on Hitler, I predicted that with the collapse of attempts to invade England, we would expect a great smoke screen of news designed to distract the attention of the German and Italian people from the total failure of the blitzkrieg on Britain. Within three weeks this sensational news (?) embraced Spain, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, the East Indies, Indo-China, China, Japan, the United States—and finally France. It is the diplomatic blitzkrieg!!

The editor has again invited me to write upon the war. In the quiet of Jefferson Davis Park in Memphis, looking across the calm and picturesque Mississisip Valley, I shall survey for you the immediate future of th embattled world which stretches from the British Isles, across Europe, Africa and Asia to Japan, as seen thru Canadian eyes.

Germany has positively no chance to win!: All that Hitler is now doing is directed toward holding England ultimately to a tie score. There is nothing new under the sun. Hitler's gigantic failure is due to the same force that crushed the hopes of Napoleon and the Kaiser—the Royal Navy.

Let us assume that during the next six months the American press carried the news of these British disasters: first, Gibraltar falls to the Germans, Italian armies, aided by the French and Italian fleets and combined with the Axis air force, attacking through Spain: second, Egypt and the Suez Canal fall under the combined attack of Italian army advancing from Lybia, the French army thrusting thru Syria, and the German forces which launched their advance from bases in conquered Greece and Turkey, the naval bases of Malta, Cyrus and Alexandria having been destroyed, the British fleet having lost its oil fueling base in Palestine and having been driven from the Mediterranean into the Red Sea: third, Russia taking advantage of England's desperate battle for survival, has invaded eP'rsia and Afganisttan and is pouring troops through these border countries to attack India; fourth, Singapore has been captured by the Japanese, the inner defenses having been pulverized by Japan's aerial offensive with which the two squadrons of the Royal Air Force were unable to cope.

Excitement over such victories would run high in Berlin, Rome, Moscow, and Tokyo. The atmosphere in London would be heavy enough to slice with a knife and solemn faces would greet that news in America. Any one, or all four of these disasters, I consider as quite possible news. I do not say probable news.

Surely in such circumstances old England would be beaten to her knees at last, and the totalitarian tide would sweep over the tight little isle. No, and a thousand times no!! The English air will be an indigo blue and grave concern would be felt for the safety of the Australians and New Zealanders. But so long s the Royal Navy is intact, and nothing the Axis possesses can seriously threaten that navy. England herself is safe.

Her back is to the wall—yes, but what a wall!! That wall is England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, Canada and the United States. England will never give in, and that wall will never give way. It is Red, White and Blue for England's strength is not at Gibralta, the Suez Canal, India, or Singapore. Those are liabilities to defend—far from London, but convenient to Britain's enemies. England faces these enemies on the North, East and South: from Norway on the frozen Arctic Circle to Italian East Africa on the torrid Equator.

But German, Italy and the main war zone are held in the vise of blockade by the Royal Navy. All Axis victories are hollow and empty, for they cannot make their conquests from Norway to Roumania stick for the navy continues to throttle the totalitarian powers. And even if Gibralta and the Suez Canal were lost, the Mediterranean Sea could still be blockaded in the waters off Gi'ralta and Aden.

Imagine a vast triangle, one point at aVncouver, B. C., one at San Diego, Calif., and the eastern point in London. Within those lines, lies England's strength, vast wealth, the tremendous industrial resources of Britain, Canada and the United States, immense mineral and agricultural assets, inventive genius, and all the material abundance of the English speaking world Equally important are their spiritual conceptions of the dignity of man, and their implacaole resolutions to maintain their personal liberties at whatever cost necessity imposes.

This great triangle is guarded by the world's two most powerful navies. As their masts fly the Stars and Stripes, and the UnionJack—the Red, White, Blue. With in this triangle is being manufactured the military dynamite which eventually will blast the "new order" into total oblivion.

In this dark hour the British people are sustained by an abiding faith in God's justice, the knowledge that the power within the triangle is invincible, and an unshakable confidence in the Royal Navy.

Disasters may impend. If they befall the British they will be endured with the fortitude which has enabled the nation to weather past catastrophes. But so long as there is a British Navy, "There will always be an England."

Still A Worker

Mr. Jim Shaw has always been a hard worker and is still a hard worker. Maybe hard work to him is like tonic, for he seems to thrive on it.

Within very recent years, Mr. Shaw has been a great worker in three note-worthy things: first, straightening out drainage taxes on certain lands in the western part of the county; second, developing that country from a wilderness to at least a semi-cleared condition; and third, and just recently, working indefatiguably in securing names of land owners affected to a petition to Hon. Will Whittington, Chairman of the Flood Control Committee, seeking a series of dams on the Yalobusha River. Mr. Shaw HAS some landed interests that will be benefitted, we grant, but compared to the land holdings of others equally affected, Mr. Shaw's holdings are small.

Whatever Mr. Shaw undertakes to do, he does with seeming exhaustless energy and with indominable perserverance, in spite of the fact that he is long past the Biblical span of life.

Who Is The "Beast"

The entire 13th Chapter of Revelations is devoted to the "beast."

Tillman Williams, a good colored man, as well as an ardent reader of the Bible, says that Hitler is the "beast" referred to in the Bible. He proves it in this way.

The 18h verse of the 13th Chapter of Revelations says, in part, "Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred, threesocre and six".

Tillman assigns the number 100 to A, the first letter of the alphabet; 101 to B; 102 to C, and so on until Z which is 126. In such an arrangement H, the first letter of Hitler's name, will be 107; I, 108; T, 119; L, 111; E, 104; R, 117. Add those numbers, and the sum is 666, the "number of the beast", referred to in the 18th verse of the 13th Chapter of Revelations.

Read the 13th Chapter. Do your own figuring and you will arrive at our conclusion, "that Tillman has something there."

Vote Tuesday

It is freely predicted that Mr. Willkie will receive more votes in Mississippi Tuesday than any Republican nominee has received in many years.

It is, therefore, up to the individuals who are FOR Roosevelt to VOTE for Roosevelt, otherwise the Republicans are going to score a high percentage vote.

Let everyone vote, so that a true picture of sentiment in Mississippi may result from this General Election.

The Land Amendments

Probably you, like ourselves, know nothing of the proposed constitutional amendment upon which you are called to vote next Tuesday.

A safe plan, in the absence of knowledge, is to vote "Nay," or just skip that part of the ballot.

TRUSTY'S Grenada

COUNTY AGENT TELLS OF NEW FARM PROGRAM

Recently we wrote you a report showing the acreage of different crops on your farm. Also the number of soil building units (or acres) you needed to earn by planting winter cover cover crops, applying lime fertilizer to legumes or pasture, and terracing.

The soil building paymen for planting winter cover crops is $1.50 for seeding; also you may collect $1.50 per acre in 1941 for plowing under the crop; also it will count on the 25 per cent amendment for 1941 and night save you a penalty of $5.00 per acre. Therefore, it seems advisable for you to plant winter legumes even where you don't have your land fenced.

Many farmers do not seem to understand the amendment for 1941 requiring that each farm grow at least 25 per cent of the approved tilled acreage to summer legumes (such as peas, soybeans, lespedeza, crotolaria, etc.) Other approved crops and items: terracing on cropland planted to non-depleting crops, pasture on approved cropland, soybeans and oats may be cut for hay, (oats while green) but neither oats nor soybeans will count when harvested with combine.

Each farmer should determine one-fourth of his approved tilled acreage. Then decide the number of acres of peas, soybeans, lespedeza, etc. he will have in 1941. If his acreage of summer legumes does not equal the 1-4 of your cropland, you should plant enough winter legumes this fall to make it up, as the penalty next year is $5.00 per acre for each acre you fail to have up to the 1-4 of your cropland.

Peas and beans interplanted in corn do not count under this amendment, but will still earn thirty cents per acre soil building payment. The summer legumes may be cut for hay under this amendment.

GORE SPRINGS H. D. CLUB NEWS

(By Mrs. Neely, H. D. Agent)

Mr. R. O. Monosmith, Extension Horticulturist, and Mrs. Neely met with a group of Gore Springs men, women and 4-H Club girls and made plans for landscaping the Gore Springs school grounds. Mr. Monosmith made a most interesting talk on landscaping the home grounds, showing by means of painted cloth, the actual farm home before landscaping and then the home and grounds after careful organized effort directed careful thought and planning which is necessary for successful landscape development. The Gore Springs Home Demonstration Club members are sposors of this beautification project, and when carried through, even the it may take a course of 3 or 5 years to complete the entire landscaping of the school grounds, Teacherage, Vocational Building and the Community Church and Cemetery grounds. It is a project that will grow through out tthe entire community. Very few shrubs will be bought from the nursery, the shrubs shall be donated by the community women and 4-H club girls, who at present are rooting such shrubs for this purpose. The vocational boys shall prepare the soil, fertilize it, and have it in readiness for our shrubs to be put into the ground in December. The club women feel that the recreational and educational advantages of landscaping are many, and such may be said of the value of orderly, attractive surroundings as an invironment for growing children.

GIRL RESERVES BREAKFAST

Saturday morning, October 19, a group of thirty-five Girl Reserves had breakfast on Pine Hill.

Louise Avent, social chairman, had charge of the food.

These girls met Miss Haynes and Miss Pierce in front of the high school at 6:30, then hiked to the hill.

Large quantities of toast, bacon, scrambled eggs, coffee, milk, and bananas were consumed.

After breakfast the girls enjoyed singing Girl Reserves songs and then hiking home again.

GUEST SPEAKER

At 2:40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Cunningham spoke to the High School student body. After several complimentary remarks about Mr. Rundle, Mr. Cunningham spoke on using our leisure time for good purposes since idle hands usually make mischief. Mr. Cunningham's talk was highly inspirational and we would heartily welcome a return visit.

BOBBY BURRIS MOVES TO WASHINGTON

The student body is sorry to lose Bobby Burris, who stayed in the school for only a little over a year, completing his Junior year last year and beginning his senior work this year. By Bobby's move to Washington, D. C., the Senior Class lost a good student and a well-liked classmate.

INTRODUCING:

JOHN KEETON

John Keeton, president of the Grenada High School Band, is really worthy of this honor. Although he is not yet quite the equal to Clyde McComb, John's talent is evident in his position as a first chair trombonist. John is a good student, and classmate, a member of the public speaking class and is well-liked by teachers and pupils.

BILLY SEMMES

As long as the introductions this week seem to be inclined toward great talents and fine intellects it is, perhaps, well to mention William Oliver Semmes, betted known as Billy. Billy is the other half—I won't say the better half—of the Bulldog's" editorial staff. Billy has a decided talent for writing (when he gets around to it) and his keen sense of humor is well-known. His special interest is history, in which subject he is an authority. As a member of the public speaking group and the yearbook staff last year, Billy was among the best. "Willie" is an important cog in this senior machine.

Billy Semmes: To get away from it all.

LET'S IMPROVE

The first six weeks term has ended and the report cards have been given out. Some were very well pleased with their grades; others were not. Those who have low grades should remember that they have no one to blame but themselves. The teachers are perfectly glad to give you a good grade if you make ones otherwise they will give you what you make.

There were a few who failed one or more subjects this first term. Of course it is very disheartening to start the year with an F, but you shouldn't give up If you will get busy and put just a little more time on that subject you will pass it next term. If you make a good grade, it is easy to hold you own then. The cards were, as a whole, not as good as they might have been. There were only a few who made the honor roll and these two or three were Freshmen. The higher classes had better get busy and get some of their members on the honor roll, especially the Senior Class. Every other Senior class ahead of us has always had somebody on the honored list. So you Senior scholars get to work and turn out perfect report cards; don't let it be said that we are not as good as the best.

DUPLICATE CLUB

Mrs. Sam Hall Garner entertained the members of the Duplicate Club Tuesday afternoon in her charming living room. Exquisite arrangements of white chrysanthemums and soft toned radiance roses completed the decorations for this occasion. Three tables were arranged and the non-member guest present was Mrs. E. L. Bass.

At intermission Mrs. Garner served a delectable salad and sandwich plate with cocacola.

Mesdames F. S. Hill and E. L. Bass compiled high score.

Mesdames Roger Pleasants and Cecil Smith were second high score winners.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The young ladies in the 3rd year girls class of the Methodist Church, with their teacher, Miss Mary Houston entertained members of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School on Monday night of this week, on the third floor of the Sunday School building. A delightfully planned Halloween motif enhanced the rooms on this floor. Black and yellow crepe paper, black cats and yellow pumpkins, ghosts and witches adorned the walls. Three rooms were prepared and as the ghosts arrived they were escorted on a tour of interesting sights. The first room, where every guest was given pencil and paper, the young people were subject to tests, the second room a fortune teller (Mrs. Holland) proved to be a very interesting person, adding much merriment to the party and the third room, the spook (Christene Rhodes), proved the greatest "thrill" of all.

The young folks and Miss Houston served refreshments. Rev. Mr. Thower Miss Pierce and Miss Jourdan assisted.

AUXILIARIES

All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Ben Brown for the regular business program meeting Monday. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, Pres. presided. Mrs. Sherwood, vice president, acting secretary in the absence of Mrs. Benoit, read the minutes. Mrs. Rose Weir gave her treasury report.

After conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Whitaker asked Mrs. A. W. George, Diocesan custodian of United Thank Offering, for a report on the tri-annual convention held recently in Kansas City. Mrs. George gave a most interesting and inspiring report on the great work being done by the Auxiliaries of the Episcopal Church. Rev. Mr. Liles, rector of All Saints was a most welcome visitor at this meeting, and it was he who led the devotional.

The Service League benediction was said in unison at the end of the program.

CHICAGO FOLKS VISIT THE SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umbright, of Chicago, returned to Grenada Monday after a stay at the Buena Vista in Biloxi. They visited briefly in New Orleans, Natchez, at Vicksburg. All Saints College with their cousin, Dorothy Whitaker, in Greenville and later in Greenwood for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Lawrence. After a visit with their cousins, the Whyte Whitaker family and Mrs. Glenn, they left for Oxford for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Trotter, then on to Chicago by Thursday (today).

Mrs. Walter Doty, Jr. and mother, Mrs. Mildred Rosemond returned home last Wednesday after attending the funeral of Mr. Lonnie Murphy of Independence. Mr. Murphy was the brother of the former Miss Annie Bay Rosemond, who is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Rosemond and sister of Mrs. Doty. Mrs. Doty and Mrs. Rosemond were with Mrs. Murphy for ten days or more.

Mrs. Eugene Robinson and Mrs. Frank Fair, of Louisville were guests of Mrs. Giles Patty on Friday of last week.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

On Friday of last week, Mrs. Rogers Burt was hostess of club members at her home on College Boulevard.

Two tables were arranged in the living room which was made festive by artistic arrangements of autumn flowers.

At the conclusion of the games, the prizes, a hand made luncheon set, was presented Mrs. Kent.

Sandwiches, stuffed dates and coca colas were served.

Mr. Jeff Fatherree was called to the bedside of his mother this past week. She is critically ill at her home in Memphis. Mr. Fatherree has returned to Grenada, but plans to go back to Memphis one day this week.

Miss Louise McRea, of Laurel, was a guest in the home of Mrs. C. E. Lockett last week-end. On Saturday, James Russell Lockett and Miss McRea attended the football game in Memphis.

Ernest Penn, Jr. and Donald Lockett spent Saturday afternoon at the game between Ole Miss-Ark. played at Crump's Stadium, Memphis.

JUNIOR MACDOWELL MUSICALE

Young musicians of Grenada met last Thursday evening at the country home of Miss Marguerite Stanley for the first Junior MacDowell Musicale meeting of the autumn. On this occasion Miss Stanley had as cohostesses, two other members, Misses Betty Jester Edwards and Carolyn Whitaker.

The business meeting, presided over by the President, Miss Dora of Tallula, was followed by a delightful program of patriotic music. John Keeton told the club of the origin of "Star Spangled Banner." Frances Herring told of the origin of "Hail Columbia." and Ruth Toomes told of the origin and popularity of our newest patriotic song "God Bless America."

Vocal solo by Marjory Chapman and Carolyn Whitaker, and piano solo by Dorothy Talbert and Nellie Joliet were enjoyed.

Mrs. Stanley assisted the three girls who were hostess with the serving of refreshments. New members present at this lovely affair were: Margaret Green, Jean Scott Burt, Margaret Sain, Stella B. Irby, Margaret Bell, James Thomas, Rogers Pleasants, Orelle Nail, Ruth Talbert.

Officers of the club are Dora Talbert, president; Louise Avent, vice-pres.; Margaret Stanley, secretary-treasurer; Carolyn Whitaker, reporter.

Mr. W. E. Trussell of Oakland, is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Thompson. Miss Clara May Brassell of Memphis, spent the week end in this home also.

Mrs. William Rich, of Arcola, has arrived at the home of her father, Mr. Strahan to be at the bedside of her sister, Miss Mary, who sustained painful injuries on Monday. Miss Mary is reported as improving.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

Circle No. 3 met in the home of Mrs. C. E. Lockett with eight members present.

After the personal service program was concluded Mrs. Lockett entertained her guests at social hour. The colorful Halloween motif was carried out in decoration and in the delicious refreshments served.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. B. F. Thompson with eleven members present. The personal service program, Under the guidance of Mrs. D. O. Carlisle was very interesting. This was followed by the serving of refreshments and a social hour.

Ann Kent, sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spivey Kent attained her sixth birthday on October 26th.

On this anniversary, Ann invited a small group composed of school chums and children in the neighborhood, to attend the matinee at the picture show Saturday.

After the show, this happy group went to Ann's home where the birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream.

GRANTHAM-COHEA

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mr. Lloyd Grantham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grantham of Tie Plant, to Miss Leslie Louise Cohea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cohea, of Elliott, on October 18, 1940. Rev. E. R. Henderson performing the ceremony at his home in Grenada.

Mrs. Ben Kavanaugh and little son, of Winona, are guests of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. E. L. Wilkins.

Mrs. Rodney Dabney has returned from Meridian where she attended the funeral of her grandmother. Mrs. Dabney's mother accompanied her home but has returned to Meridian at this time.

May Juchheim and Edward Morgan, students at Moorhead, were at home the past week-end.

Mrs. A. W. George has returned from Kansas City, Mo. where she attended the Triannual Episcopal convention. She also visited her nephew, Lieut. Sibley Moore, at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

The picture shows Mother erry, her parents and her brothers and sisters. With the exception of those of Mrs. erry's parents, the pictures were made about 1908.

DUCK HILL NEWS
by Mrs. M. S. Walker

Mrs. W. E. Sledge left for Portsmouth, Va., Friday where her husband has been several months as draftsman in Uncle Sam's ship building yard. Their daughter, Miss Lula Sledge will continue her studies att the University of Mississippi for the present session, then will enter a Virginia school.

Miss Grace Norwood was at home from Moorhead Junior College with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Norwood for the week-end. We learned (but not from modest Grace) that she had just finished her first six weeks nd in the test she made the highest grade in the school in Bible, Literature and Spanish. She made good here and we knew she was going to give good account of herself there. Congratulations Grace.

Mrs. W. B. Caffey spent the week-end with her children, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Caffey, Jr. and Mr and Mrs. E. B. Walker, in Jackson.

Mrs. Frances Felts and handsome little boys, Billie and Don, were guests from Avalon to their aunt, Mrs. Claude Thomas, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollard Harrison, of Memphis, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gates, of Phillips, were recent visitors to Mrs. Hattie Embry.

Miss Mary Walker, who is spending several months with her sister, Mrs. Elmo Branch, spent the week-end in St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Norwood entertained the Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon in her well arranged home. Mrs. V. H. Campbell, president called the meeting to order. After a prayer the songs, "God Bless America," and "O Susianna," sang by the group. A good demonstration on making rugs, baskets and ventilations of pantries, also making bottoms for stools was given by Miss Doris Foster, efficient and popular Home Demonstration Agent. The three little Norwood girls, Bonnie, Olga, and Frances gave readings that were enjoyed by all, lively games were played and then the three charming little girls again made themselves useful by serving a most delicious refreshment. As some expressed it, "a real picnic."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Starks with Jr. A. W. Moore, Miss Maydell Moore and Mrs. J. E. Patridge, visited the James Pryor family in late Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guin Cox, of Drew, pent from Thursday to Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George olmes.

We knew Dr. H. B. Oliver was a plendid doctor but we did not know he claimed to be a surgeon until we saw him with our own eyes perform an operation. It was an emergency case, the need was great, he did not use ether or chloroform, or take the time to put on gloves, cap or gown, but with a determned look, a steady hand, a sure instrument, he skillfully opened up a dry goods box.

Mrs. J. M. Leigh and little daughter, Paula, from Grenada and Mrs. Pauline Bryant from Winona, visited heir parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClain during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sledge and daughter, Miss Mattie Helen Sledge, visited J. C. Sledge, Jr., at State College Sunday and on to M. S. C. W. for a visit with their niece, Miss Onnia Mae Carver.

Pathetic, yet showing the true spirit is the story we read from the Commercial Appeal of the colored man down in Jeff Davis county who did not understand all about the draft, but came in on registration day with tears in his eyes, his clothing all packed and ready to go to war. Said he and his family had sat up all night before singing hymns and praying. When it was explained to him, he said: "Yo' jes tell 'em dat I's ready when day is."

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Blaylock and their daughter, Miss Opal Blaylock, visited relatives in the delta during the week.

Mrs. Claude Thomas had an enjoyable visit with Mrs. Lon Thomas in Elliott recently.

Mrs. Fannie Hutchenson, of Grenada, Miss Louise Phillips, of Hardy, spent the week with the Henry Blaylock family. Other guests in the Blaylock home Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blaylock and children from Kilmichael, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Blaylock and Mr. Jim Weed, of Grenada.

Wheeler Johnson, who finished High School here the past session and is now in San Antonio, Texas, studying to be a real Chiropratic specialist, is liking his work fine and making good; already practicing on some of the patients. Writes he has two "old fat sisters that are so fat he has not been able to find their backbone. Maybe they don't have any, Wheeler.

Mrs. Cliff Stoddard and lovely little daughter, Geneva Ann are visiting in Coffeeville.

Mr. L. L. Taylor accompanied Mr. W. Stoddard from Memphis and is spending a few days.

THE FOOD STAMP PLAN

How The Proposed Plan Will Operate In Grenada County, Mississippi

MORE FOOD FOR YOUR FAMILY WITHOUT SPENDING MORE MONEY

THE FOOD STAMP PLAN

A new method of distributing surplus foods, is proposed by the United States Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the State Department of Public Welfare, wholesale and retail food merchants.

THE PURPOSE OF THE FOOD STAMP PLAN

Is to move surplus farm products through normal channels of trade by a method which provides needy families with health-giving foods, thereby building up our national health defenses. The former method of distributing surplus foods in bulk to individuals will be discontinued in Grenada County if this plan is put in operation. Persons taking part in the Plan may purchase such of these foods as they need from any participating retail food merchant in the same manner as cash customers. The merchant will obtain these foods through regular trade channels.

THE FOOD STAMP PLAN HAS THREE PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVES:

1. To aid American farmers by creating greater markets for domestic farm products.
2. A 50 percent increase (or more) in food purchasing power for families who are now receiving or eligible to receive some form of public assistance.
3. Use of normal trade channels to distribute the surplus agricultural commodities, an aid to all lines of business.

FOOD STAMPS

Are in two colors:

Orange and Blue

Each stamp is worth twenty-five cents. The United States Government gives Blue Samps free with each purchase of Orange Stamps. Food Stamps may be exchanged for food articles at any participating retail food store.

ORANGE STAMPS

May be used to buy any food product taken home for human consumption. Food Stamps CANNOT be used to purchase alcoholic beverages or tobacco, in any form, or for the purchase of household articles, such as soap, starch, fuels, matches, mops, brooms, and other non-food items, nor feed for livestock. Stamps cannot be used to pay for food eaten at the store.

BLUE STAMPS

Can be used only to purchase farm products which the Secretary of Agriculture has designated as surplus. A list of the surplus commodities available with blue stamps will be provided for each participant at the time he buys his stamps. The latest list of items will always be posted in retail food stores, and given wide publicity. The list of food items will be changed as surpluses are consumed and others are produced.

The Food Stamp Plan is the new method of distributing surplus foods for the mutual benefit of needy persons, farmers, and grocers. It is operated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the State and County Welfare Administrations and local food merchants. All persons in Grenada and Grenada County who are certified for public aid, or who are working on W. P. A. Projects, will be eligible to participate in the plan.

THE FOOD STAMP PLAN HAS THE FOLLOWING ADVANTAGES:

1--Distribution through the regular channels of trade permits needy persons to secure a wide selection of the foods they greatly need.

2-- It enables farmers to market their commodities at prices high enough to permit a profit.

Print the Food Stamp Plan. Work for it. Let's put it into operation in Grenada County. Once tried in a county, it has never been abandoned. If we can get the Food Stamp Plan we should soon be able to get the Cotton Stamps also.

There is no selfish motive which impels us to advocate the Food Stamp Plan. We cancel accounts the stamps on subscription, for printing or for advertising, and that's all we have to sell, except in our official capacity as banker in the police game, and stamps do not "go" there.

Whitaker's Utopia

Dear Editor Whitaker:

As we were digging in archives of the past, we found the enclosed old poem, in a GRENADA SENTINEL dated December 14, 1931. The old poem paints four of your pet dreams of six years ago. Those were the days when Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt was pumping the RFC full blast; those were the days when every fellow was tearing every other fellow's shirt off because of the DEPRESSION; and last but not least Harry Greenfield had just recovered from the heart-break over his lost radio.

Now that Mr. Ford is nosing around the Yalobusha River, preparing for improvements, let all spectators see HOW IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE and especially how the Whitaker dreams seem always to bring results. Here follows:

From out December's cold and chilling rain,
I stepped into the Sentinel's domain.
The editor was tearing loose,
Between expectorations of tobacco juice.
Now even country editors, it seems,
At times indulge in fair Utopian dreams.
And Whitaker, on this cold day, in lyric streams,
Was raving on his four pet schemes.

MOSQUITO LAKE was on his fevered brain;
His facilities could hardly stand the strain.
Some railroad ought to charter out a train,
To get those children back in school again.
Dead, the state, with all its paltry gold,
Should loosen up its tight and greedy hold,
And get those poor kids in the school-room's fold!
In wrath, he really got the matter told!

Then shifting up his other knee,
He started on the SCHOOL-TRUST'S pedigree.
More warmly still he waxed upon his spree,
Until his soul grew eloquent and free.
And here I write the words he said to me:—
"My grandpaw left a golden legacy,—
Four wagon-loads of best selected books,
My grandpaw said, "In spite of BOOK-TRUST crooks,
You keep these school books in our family!
They can be used by all of your posterity!
These fine, well tested books that once were mine,
Can teach your children how to toe the line."
And here the editor leaped from his chair!
"How can this SCHOOL and BOOK-TRUST rise and dare
To teach me how to raise my son and heir!"

A moment passed e'er he again could speak,
But getting fixed a new chaw in his cheek,
He said, "They're other battlefields that I must seek.
That PHILLIP ROAD needs working right away;
They ought to raise it up two feet, I'd say.
And since its used by such fine folks,
As Roland Rayburn, me, and Henry Stokes,
They ought to gravel it the whole way through!"

Then as he bade farewell to me, he said:—
"My New Year's wish is goin' to be,
TO HAVE GEORGE GARNER HAUL AWAY THE RFC.
Alas I did one pet forget,—
I haven't got that YALOBUSHA dammed up yet!"

Lady Byron.

COTTON GINNING REPORT

Census report shows that 3271 bales of cotton were ginned in Grenada County from the crop of 1940 prior to Oct. 18, 1940 as compared with 6210 bales for the crop of 1939.

B. AND W. TO MEET HERE

A district meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs will be held at the Barwin Hotel Sunday, Nov. 3rd, beginning at 10:30 a. m. with luncheon at 12:30.

About 30 representatives from the Northeast District are expected. Miss Dorothy Crook, National Legislative Chairman will be guest speaker.

HOUSE BURNED

A small house belonging to Tom Jackson and occupied by Shorty Smith burned Saturday night. The house was located just at the East end of the New No. 8 bridge across Bogue.

Mrs. Irene Hendrick Ford, popular nurse and matron at Grenada Hospital will attend a state nurses convention at Greenwood three first days of next week.

Rev. J. H. Felts, former pastor of the Methodist Church here is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Anderson. He arrived Tuesday and will leave Friday.

HALLOWE'EN PARTW

On Wednesday evening, Teddy Revell entertained twenty-two guests at a beautifully planned Hallowe'en party.

The guests came attired in gala costumes and adding to the mystery of the occasion, each one was masked. The home was decorated with Hallowe'en figures pinned to the curtains and draped across the reception rooms.

Indoor games were planned for their amusement, one of which, the pinning of the broom on the witch, proved a great success.

During the first part of the evening, a scavanger hunt was enjoyed. Later games were played on the lawn. Each couple had their fortune told in the mysterious and spooky attic of the home. Miss Annie Anderson was the fortune teller.

The refreshments consisted of delectable sandwiches and orange juice.

Mrs. W. T. Merritt, of Jackson, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. C. Penn.

Mrs. Joe Enderlin's friends sympathize with her in the loss of her youngest brother, Mr. Elgin Woodruff, who died at the Veteran's Hospital in Dayton, Ohio, following an operation for a ruptured appendix. He passed away Thursday, Oct. 24, 1940.

Mrs. Hamilton Graves and Miss Mary Thomas spent last week-end at M. S. C. W. visiting with Miss Nancy Nelson Grandberry, niece of Miss Thomas.

Mrs. Eugere Davis, former citizen of Grenada, now a resident of Jackson, is visiting in the home of Mrs. J. L. Avent this week.

Mrs. T. A. Hale has returned to Water Valley after a visit here with her relative, Mrs. J. L. Avent.

John Haxby's "tummy" continues to grow. So does that of Therrill Costilow.

It looks like the "train" is still on the siding or on the passing track.
